How do I apply?

- How soon can I apply?
  - the application process begins on 1 September 2016

- Where do I apply?
  - apply online at www.eadmissions.org.uk
How do I apply?

- How many schools can I apply for?
  - You can apply for up to six schools
  - You will rank the schools in your order of preference
  - It is important to think carefully about the order as you will not be able to change it after the closing date

- Can I apply to schools outside Barnet?
  - Yes, you must include all your chosen schools, whether inside or outside the borough where you live
How do I apply?

- Realistic Preferences
  - if you just apply for one school, your child will only be considered for that one school
  - if this is unsuccessful, places at oversubscribed schools will not be available
  - if all the preferences you make are unrealistic, you are unlikely to secure a place at any of these schools
How do I apply?

Do I need to fill in any other forms?

- all voluntary aided schools and some foundation schools, free schools & academies will ask you to complete a Supplementary Information Form (SIF)
- the SIF will ask for additional information, for example
  - faith schools will ask about church attendance and require a priest’s reference
  - selective schools will ask about any medical condition that needs to be taken into account at the test and they may also require a photograph
- Jewish schools will also ask you to complete a Certificate of Religious Practice (CRP), which must be signed by a Rabbi
- SIFs and CRPs must be returned to the individual schools
How do I apply?

What else do I need to provide?

- Proof of address
  - your permanent address must be used on the application form
  - if you have moved in the last two years you will be asked to provide proof of the new address and proof that you have disposed of the previous address
Selection Tests

- Schools must give parents the test results before they apply for a school place

- Applications to sit the tests should be made directly to the individual school
Selection Tests

When will the tests be held?

- most schools will hold tests early in the autumn term
- some schools will hold the tests in the summer term while your child is still in Year 5

Note: Mill Hill County High School and Dame Alice Owen’s both have secondary transfer tests on Saturday 3 September 2016.
To enable children to take both tests the schools will arrange for the DAO test to take place in the morning and the MHCH test in the afternoon.
How do I apply?

- When is the closing date?
  - 31 October 2016
  - the online system will close at 12 midnight on 31 October
Late applications

What happens if I miss the deadline?

- late applications will not be considered until after the first round of offers
- if there is a good reason for a late application, it may be treated as on-time
- you must let the Admissions Team know your reason by 9 December 2016
What happens next?

- Co-ordinated admissions
  - the transfer process is co-ordinated by all 33 London boroughs
  - application lists are exchanged
  - offer lists are drawn up
  - offer lists are exchanged
What happens next?

How will places be allocated?

- if the school is over-subscribed, the admissions criteria will be applied to decide who can be offered a place
- each application is considered as if it is equally preferred
- your ranking order is not passed to the individual schools
Offers

Will I be offered more than one school place?

- if your child can be offered more than one school, you will be offered the highest rank possible

- the lower preferences will be withdrawn and offered to other children

- no child will be offered more than one school
When will I hear?

- National Offer Day is Wednesday 1 March 2017
- Online applicants can log in and see the result in the evening of 1 March
- Letters will be sent on 1 March to applicants who are not offered their first preference explaining what to do next
Offers

- Accepting offers
  - places to be accepted or declined online by 15 March 2017
No Offer?

What happens if I don’t get any of my preference schools?

- your child will be allocated a place at the nearest school with a vacancy
- remain on the waiting lists
- appeal for a place
- join waiting lists for other schools
Appeals

- Every parent has the right of appeal
- Appeals are heard by an independent panel
- You will have the opportunity to present your case in person
- You will need to convince the panel that your child’s needs are more important than the school’s need to limit the admission number
- Appeals are not usually successful unless there are exceptional grounds
